

CCT Wildlife Watch – March 2021

Sandra Partridge saw this Tufted Duck on Sandhill Lake (Godfrey's Pond) at Worksop.

Roger Ashpole saw this Mistle Thrush on the pyracantha in his garden.

Roger saw these Goosanders, female above, male below, at Bluebank.

Dave Penney saw all of the next set on the Derbyshire section of the canal. Mute Swan above, Reed Bunting below.

Dawn Bussingham saw these Cygnets at Forest Locks.

Mike Slattery saw this Robin at Bluebank.

If you look closely, you can just see a Heron on the basin at Waterside. Below, our Membership Secretary feeds her amazingly tame Pheasant.
